

Proposals from the Elections Committee for positions of responsibility in Malmö United Nations Association 2018/2019

Elections Committee 2017/2018:

Michael-Jay Andersson

Mimmi Clase Hagman

Shayan Amin

Shervin Vahedi

Toktam Jahangiry

Nominations for positions of responsibility in the board

Frida Lind

Proposal from the Elections Committee: President

Motivation:

Frida Lind is passionate about a world where all human beings are born free and equal in dignity. She holds a Bachelor's degree in international relations and she is currently studying for a Master's degree in international development. Frida has been active in the board of UNA Malmö since 2015 and was elected President in 2017. She is also an inspirational speaker for UNA Sweden and has worked as an intern for the Permanent Mission of Sweden to the United Nations in New York. We believe that Frida, in the role of President, can contribute to the continued development of UNA Malmö.

Anna Grumstedt

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Vice-President

Motivation:

Anna Grumstedt is passionate about equality, equal rights and how to build long-term peace in conflicts. She holds a Bachelor's degree in peace and security studies and political science. Anna has been active in the board of UNA Malmö since 2016. During the previous year of operation, she held the position of Vice-President and has, at times, taken the role of temporary President. We believe that Anna, in the role of Vice-President, can contribute to the continued development of UNA Malmö.

Nahid Biglari

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Treasurer

Motivation:

Nahid Biglari is passionate about human rights. She is a trained architect and teacher of mathematics and Persian. Nahid has great experience of associative life and has held several responsibility positions in other associations. She has been active in the board of UNA Malmö since 2016. She was elected Treasurer for the previous year of operation. We believe that Nahid, in the role of Treasurer, will continue to contribute to the development of UNA Malmö.

Tilda Jonsson

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Youth Representative

Motivation:

Tilda Jonsson is passionate about questions relating to youth and equality. She is currently studying for a Bachelor's degree in gender studies. During the previous year of operation, Tilda volunteered for UNA Malmö and she has also worked on a voluntary basis for other associations. In the autumn of 2017, she participated in training for Youth Representatives held by UNA Sweden. With this background, we believe that Tilda, in the role of Youth Representative, will contribute a lot to UNA Malmö.

Johanna Caminati Engström

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member of the Board with special responsibility for communication and PR

Motivation:

Johanna Caminati Engström is passionate about human rights and development issues. She is currently studying for a Bachelor's degree in human rights. In the autumn term of 2017 she was an intern at the Consulate General of Sweden in Istanbul. Johanna has volunteered for a women's organisation in Malawi and she has also worked on a voluntary basis for several other Swedish associations. We believe that Johanna with her knowledge can contribute to the development of UNA Malmö, in the role of Member of the Board with special responsibility for communication and PR.

Marek Lakatos

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member of the Board with special responsibility for the equality section

Motivation:

Marek Lakatos is passionate about peace and security, equality and human rights. He is a trained treatment and social pedagogue with good knowledge of behavioural science, criminology and social work. Marek has long experience from work within different youth sectors in Malmö and is currently employed in the public sector. We believe that Marek with his knowledge can contribute to the development of UNA Malmö in the role of Member of the Board with special responsibility for the equality section.

Martin Björkhagen

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member of the Board with special responsibility for the environment sector

Motivation:

Martin Björkhagen is passionate about peace and development issues. He holds a Bachelor's degree in peace and conflict studies and carried out his Master's dissertation in development studies in Indonesia. He was elected deputy member of the association for the previous year of operation. We believe that Martin's knowledge will be a great asset in the role of Member of the Board with special responsibility for the environment section of UNA Malmö.

Raghad Canawati

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member of the Board with special responsibility for the peace and security section

Motivation:

Raghad Canawati is passionate about human rights. She holds a double Bachelor's degree in Arabic and English literature and translation. Raghad's has worked for UNHCR Syria for more than five years, which gave her important experience of working within the UN system that will be a valuable asset to the association. During the previous year she volunteered for UNA Malmö. We believe that Raghad will be a great contribution to the board of UNA Malmö in the role of Member of the Board with special responsibility for the peace and security section.

Amélie Almegård

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Deputy Member

Motivation:

Amélie Almegård is passionate about issues relating to peace, security and equality. She currently studies social sciences in upper secondary school and volunteered for UNA Malmö during the previous year of operation. Amélie has good IT knowledge and great social media experience. She is an active columnist and wrote a blog post for UNA Malmö on human rights that received a lot of attention. We believe that Amélie, in the role of Deputy Member, will contribute a lot to UNA Malmö.

Mathias Persson

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Deputy Member

Motivation:

Mathias Persson is passionate about equality and sustainable development. He is educated in languages and human ecology. Mathias was elected deputy member of the board of UNA Malmö for the previous year of operation. He has great experience from associative life and has held several responsibility positions in other associations. Mathias has a wide network of contacts from the university sector, where he is currently employed. We believe that Mathias, in the role of Deputy Member, will contribute greatly to UNA Malmö.

Nominations for positions of responsibility in the Elections Committee

Michael-Jay Andersson

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Convener

Motivation:

Gives his own presentation during the annual meeting.

Mathilda Englund

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member

Motivation:

Mathilda Lund is passionate about development issues and women's rights. She studies for a Bachelor's degree in development studies, with specialisation in economic history. Mathilda volunteered for UNA Malmö during the previous year of operation and has experience from voluntary work in other associations. She has also participated in several of UNA Sweden's ABC courses. We believe that Mathilda's knowledge will contribute to the development of the work of UNA Malmö's Elections Committee.

Shervin Vahedi

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member

Motivation:

Gives his own presentation during the annual meeting.

Toktam Jahangiry

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Member

Motivation:

Gives her own presentation during the annual meeting.

Shayan Amin

Proposal from the Elections Committee: Deputy Member

Motivation:

Gives her own presentation during the annual meeting.