

Proposals from the Election Committee for positions of trust in UNA Malmö 2019/2020

Election committee 2018/2019:

Michael-Jay Andersson

Mathilda Englund

Board: Nominations for positions of trust

Nada Dukleska

Proposal from the Election Committee: President

Comment:

Nada is passionate about human rights, equality and international law. She has a bachelor's degree in law from Lund University, where she has studied extra courses in human rights. Nada has been volunteering for a long time in a variety of organizations. She has also as collected money to marginalized families in Macedonia. We believe that Nada will be a great President, as her strong commitment will help to continue developing the UNA Malmö.

Nadja Rantonen

Proposal from the Election Committee: Vice President

Comment:

After showing great commitment and interest in the volunteer group of UNA Malmö, the Election Committee finds that Nadja is an obvious candidate as a Vice President. Nadja find continuity in meetings very important. She listens in and actively participate with the aim to create efficient working methods within the group. The Election Committee consider these characteristics as very important to have as a Vice President in UNA Malmö.

Daniela Hooper

Proposal from the Election Committee: Director of Communications

Comment:

Daniela is passionate about equal rights to education and sustainable development. She has long professional experience working with with communicative activities, evaluations and operational strategies. Daniela has also previous experience of board work, as well as volunteering in UNA Malmö. We strongly believe that Daniela will do a great job as director of communications, where she can use her expertise in developing UNA Malmö.

Nahid Biglari

Proposal from the Election Committee: Treasurer

Comment:

Nahid has demonstrated a wide set of skills in her previous assignment as Treasurer in UNA Malmö. She has shown great commitment in UNA Malmö, and treated all her assignments in a professional manner. The e Election Committee is therefore nominating Nahid as treasurer mainly because we believe that she will continue to do a great job but also because she already possesses the expertise to continue to create good continuity in the UNA Malmö.

Youth Group Representative

Comment: Votation of Youth Group Representative will take place in the Annual Meeting of UNA Malmö. Votation will take place between Member of the Board Nominees Allan Gerald Sserwanga, Emilia Nordström, Amin Moalin and Anas Alamoush.

Douha Kermani

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Board

Comment:

Douha is currently working with a wide range of communicative tasks, which we in the Election Committee believe is could benefit UNA Malmö. She is very driven as a person. She is percipient and ensures that everyone's voices are heard. Douha believes in creating common solutions based on a group's wishes. We in the Election Committee believe that Douha is a great candidate as a Board Member because of her strong interest in contributing to the development of UNA Malmö.

Allan Gerald Sserwanga

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Board

Comment:

Allan express characteristics that are essential in order to push the group forward. He is goal oriented and believes that all the decision-making within an association should push for the common good. He also believes in managemental strategies and justice in order to create a good cooperation amongst the members. Allan is therefore an obvious candidate for a Board Member in UNA Malmö.

Emilia Nordström

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Board

Comment:

Emilia is very committed to issues concerning climate change, gender inequalities and human rights. Emma is passionate about increasing peaceful and inclusive values in the local community. The Election Committee believe that Emma can further develop UNA Malmö as a Board Member.

Amin Moalin

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Board

Comment:

Amin is very interested in the UN Sustainable Development Goals. He is very goal-oriented and ensures that a group work towards a common good. Amin strongly believes that fair treatment and strong commitment are essential in non-profit work. We in the Election Committee believe that Amin is an excellent candidate for as a Board Member of UNA Malmö.

Anas Alamoush

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Board

Comment:

Anas is passionate about the sustainable development goals, sustainable development and sustainable use of oceans. He is currently doing doctoral research at the World Maritime University in Malmö. Anas took part in the UN Ocean week which inspired him to start planning future projects for UNA Malmö. We believe that Anas' expertise would be a wonderful asset in UNA Malmö.

Mateen Ahmed

Proposal from the Election Committee: Deputy

Comment:

Mateen has actively taken part in several volunteering organizations in Malmö, which has given him experience in working together with a board. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in international affairs at Malmö University. We strongly believe that Mateen will contribute a lot to UNA Malmö as a Deputy.

Raghad Kanawati

Proposal from the Election Committee: Deputy

Comment:

Raghad has previous work experience within UNHCR. She aims to use her knowledge to further develop UNA Malmö, which the Election Committee believe is a great asset. Raghad also wants to continue working on projects promoting the UN sustainable development goals. We in the Election Committee believe that Raghad will contribute a lot to UNA Malmö in the position of Deputy.

Özgün Rüya Oral

Proposal from the Election Committee: Deputy

Comment:

Özgün is passionate about sustainable development in regards to urban areas. She has a bachelor's degree in law, and is currently pursuing a master's degree in urban studies at Malmö University. Özgün has previously volunteered as an environmental lawyer in Turkey. We believe that Özgün will contribute to the development of UNA Malmö.

Election committee: Nominations for positions of trust

Michael-Jay Andersson

Proposal from the Election Committee: President of the Election Committee

Present himself during the annual meeting.

Jack Fraser

Proposal from the Election Committee: Member of the Election Committee

Comment:

Jack is passionate about sustainable development and environmental issues. He has a Master's degree in international environmental policies, and is currently working as a sustainability analyst. Jack has also volunteered as a climate change adaptation researcher. We strongly believe that Jack will contribute with his expertise in the Election Committee of UNA Malmö.

Member of the Election Committee

Election of Election Committee Member will take place on the UNA Malmö Annual Meeting. There will also be a possibility to nominate a candidate on the Annual Meeting.

Mathilda Englund

Proposal from the Election Committee: Deputy Member of the Election Committee

Present herself during the annual meeting.

Anna Grumstedt

Proposal from the Election Committee: Deputy Member of the Election Committee

Present herself during the annual meeting.